Consent for Treatment
Naturopathic Medicine

I hereby request and consent to the performance of naturopathic treatments and other procedures within the scope of the practice of naturopathic medicine on myself (or on the patient named below, for I am legally responsible) by Danielle Schwaderer, ND.

I understand that methods of treatment may include, but are not limited to: homeopathy, botanical medicine, nutritional counseling, flower essence therapy, intravenous and intramuscular nutritional supplementation, energy medicine, bio-identical hormone replacement, physical medicine, and massage. I understand that all treatments should be consumed according to the instructions provided orally and in writing. I will immediately notify the office of Dr. Schwaderer with any unanticipated or unpleasant effects associated with the treatment.

I have been informed that naturopathic medicine generally provides safe methods of treatment, yet the potential for side effects exists. The herbs, remedies and nutritional supplements that have been recommended are traditionally considered safe, although some may be toxic in large doses. I understand that some herbs and supplements may be inappropriate during pregnancy or breastfeeding. I will notify the office of Danielle Schwaderer, ND if I am or become pregnant or am currently breastfeeding.

By voluntarily signing below, I show that I have read, or have had read to me, the above consent to treatment. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for any future conditions(s) for which I seek treatment.

I have fully read and understand the above agreements.

Notice of Privacy Practices

The purpose of this notice is to inform you of the office of Danielle Schwaderer, ND uses and discloses your protected health information. Your protected health information is information that you have given to us regarding your health condition and treatment, our notes regarding your health condition and treatment and information that we have gathered from other sources regarding your health condition and treatment.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

With respect to your protected health information, Danielle Schwaderer, ND is required by law to

- 1.) maintain your privacy and confidentiality
- 2.) provide you with explanation of our privacy practices
- 3.) provide you with information about your rights and how to exercise those rights
- 4.) abide by the terms of this Notice.

STANDARD PRACTICE DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

Please be aware that the office of Danielle Schwaderer, ND makes every effort possible to protect your privacy and the confidentiality of your protected health information. We may disclose your healthcare information for the following reasons:

- Treatment: We may disclose your protected health information to other healthcare professionals for the purpose of treatment, when the patient has signed a release form. For example, it may be necessary to seek consultation regarding your condition from other healthcare providers associated closely with Dr. Danielle Schwaderer
- Healthcare Operations: We may review your protected health information in order to meet our goals as a healthcare provider.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

We may use or disclose your protected health information, as required by law, in the following circumstances:

- Public Health: As required by law, we may disclose your protected health information to public health authorities for purposes related to: preventing or controlling disease, reporting births or deaths, infection exposure, reporting child abuse, neglect or domestic violence, audits by oversight agencies, and concerns regarding products or medical devices to the Food and Drug Administration. Law Enforcement, Court and Administrative Agencies: We may disclose your protected health information to listed agencies in order to comply with a subpoena, court order or search warrant or to protect the safety of the public.
- Emergency Situations: We may use or disclose your protected health information in order to provide treatment to you under emergency circumstances. Also, in an emergency, we may determine that it is in your best interest to disclose information to your family or friends. We will only disclose the protected health information that is directly relevant to that person's involvement in your healthcare.
- Coroners and Medical Examiners: We may disclose your protected health information to coroners or medical examiners, as necessary, in order to facilitate the duties of their jobs.
- Worker's Compensation: We may disclose your protected health information to your employer in order to comply with state worker's compensation program laws.
- Specialized Government Functions: We may disclose your health information for military, national security, and government benefits purposes, as required by these agencies.

AUTHORIZED DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

Third party uses and disclosures other than for the above-referenced purposes will be made only with your written authorization. As provided by law, this authorization may be revoked at any time. Revocations will be honored as of our receipt date. Examples of such disclosures include the following:

- State disability claims.
- Research – must be approved by an Institutional Review Board.
- Release of medical records to yourself or healthcare providers.

Please be aware that once your protected health information has been disclosed due to your written permission, it may no longer be protected under these privacy laws.

It is Dr. Danielle Schwaderer's policy to call your home from time to time to confirm appointment times or check in when communication has been delayed. We may leave a reminder message on your answering machine or with a person answering the phone – no personal health information will be disclosed. You may request an alternative method of communication by Dr. Danielle Schwaderer at any time.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

The office of Dr. Danielle Schwaderer reserves the right to amend this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time in the future. These changes may be required by federal or state laws. New provisions will be effective for all information that we maintain. In the event of amendments, we will make a revised Notice of Privacy Practices available to you.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

I understand and agree to the following general responsibilities:

I am responsible as the patient or patient’s guarantor for full payment of services rendered at the time of service, including apothecary items. I am responsible for providing all accurate and thorough documentation required to support any discounts I am receiving. I acknowledge that I am financially responsible for all charges.

I acknowledge that I am financially responsible for all charges. If it becomes necessary to effect collections of any amount owed on this or subsequent visits, I agree to pay for all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees. I hereby authorize the office of Dr. Danielle Schwaderer to release information necessary to secure payment.

There will be a flat fee of $50 for any naturopathic appointment not cancelled within 24 hours of that appointment.

I understand and agree that Danielle Schwaderer, ND operates as a cash based practice and does not accept any form of insurance. A super bill will be provided per visit with all necessary information in order for the patient to submit for insurance re-reimbursement, when requested by patient. Danielle Schwaderer, ND and office staff are not responsible for ensuring insurance reimbursement.

I have made myself familiar with the return policy of Sonoma Roots Natural Medicine for supplements and goods purchased. I understand that supplements can be returned in unopened condition with the original receipt within 30 days of purchase.

I have fully read and understand the above agreements and authorizations.
